The screenshot shows a web browser displaying the homepage of the Global Network for Tobacco Free Healthcare Services. The browser's address bar shows the URL. The page features a Facebook logo, a search bar, and the organization's name. A navigation menu includes Home, About us, Standards, Resources, GOLD Forum, Events, Join us, and Contact us. A large banner image shows a group of people at a table with a colorful poster that reads 'DÍA DEL CORAZÓN SANO SIN' and features a heart character and a cigarette with a red prohibition sign. Below the banner, there are three columns of text with blue headers: 'Why go Tobacco Free?', 'What are the Global Standards?', and 'Why participate in the GOLD Forum Process?'. The first column discusses the role of healthcare services in addressing the tobacco epidemic. The second column mentions that standards reviewed in 2015 are evidence-based. The third column states that the GOLD Forum recognizes healthcare services working at the highest level of implementation.
